Mares Cares Counseling Achieves National Accreditation from Council on Accreditation

Chillicothe, OH — Mares Cares Counseling, a trusted mental health provider serving Chillicothe and the broader South Central Ohio region, is proud to announce its recent national accreditation from the Council on Accreditation (COA). This prestigious recognition affirms the organization's commitment to delivering high-quality, evidence-based behavioral health services.

Established in 2013 by Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor and Supervisor Trish Mares, Mares Cares Counseling has been dedicated to supporting individuals and families through compassionate and personalized care. With over eleven years of service, the practice has become a cornerstone in the community, known for its warm and welcoming environment, especially for children.

The COA accreditation process is a rigorous evaluation that assesses an organization's adherence to best practices and standards in the field. Achieving this accreditation signifies Mares Cares Counseling's excellence in service delivery and organizational management.

"Earning COA accreditation is a testament to our team's unwavering dedication to our clients and the community," said Trish Mares, founder and owner of Mares Cares Counseling. "We are honored to receive this recognition!"

In addition to this national accreditation, Mares Cares Counseling holds a three-year certification from the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services as a community behavioral health center. The practice serves clients from 27 counties, including Ross, Pike, Fayette, Pickaway, Scioto, and Highland. With a mission to provide a safe and supportive environment, the organization offers a range of services, including therapy for trauma, anxiety, depression, grief, relationships, and peer support services. The practice emphasizes collaboration, continuous growth, and compassionate support to enhance the well-being of its clients.
